Martha's Vineyard Bank Charitable Foundation Announces Food Truck is "Wrapped and Ready"

Edgartown, MA – Martha's Vineyard Bank Charitable Foundation announced today the Hino 26-foot refrigerated truck - which it purchased to help non-profit organizations providing food to those in need on the Island - has recently been wrapped with colorful graphics and is ready to begin travels to pick up food supplies and deliver to those in need on Martha's Vineyard. "This truck will be a welcome and very much needed addition to our Island food security infrastructure," said Betty Burton, President of the Vineyard Committee on Hunger.
